

Paris Public Library Computer Policy

Rules for Internet Computer Use

1. A Paris Public Library card or government issued ID is required to use the library's computer lab.
2. You must use your own Library card to use the Internet computers. You may not use other people's cards or let them use yours. This includes family members.
3. If between the ages of 12-17, patron must have parent's written consent on file in the computer lab.
4. The computers are available on a first-come, first-served basis. Sessions are one hour long, but staff can extend your time as long as no one else is waiting for a computer.
5. If no additional computers are available, you can make a reservation at the Computer Lab Desk Station.
6. The library assumes no responsibility for lost work.
7. Printing is $.25 per page. Print jobs may be picked up at the circulation desk.

Computer Use Code of Conduct

8. Food and beverages are not allowed inside the computer lab.
9. Users may not disrupt or disturb other computer users.
10. It is a criminal offense to display obscene materials; distribute, exhibit, or display sexually explicit material, which is unsuitable for minors; or have or promote materials that show child pornography (Texas Penal Code: 43.22, 43.24, 43.26). Staff may report violations to proper legal authorities. Filtering software is employed to block such websites but any user may ask the staff member on duty for a reappraisal of a block.
11. Users may not disrupt or interfere with network services.
12. The user will NOT alter the configuration of the public access computers in any way.
13. No outside devices may be added or attached to the computers or network, except for USB memory drives.
14. Users may not use the Internet for any illegal activity.
15. Violation of the computer policy may result in loss of Internet access privileges.
